Compromise With Britain Unthinkable

LAHORE RESOLUTION IRREVOCABLE. STUDENTS DECLARE BOMBAY.

FREEDOM FIRST : DEGREES NEXT, SAY MISSES FRENY BHESANIA AND MEHTA.

"Would you accept anything short of complete independence?" asked Sjt. Madanlal at the Bombay Students' Conference held on Sunday at the Royal Opera House. "Never" was the prompt reply given by an audience of over 2,000.

The Round Table Conference was described as "an instrument of effecting a compromise with British Imperialism" and students were called upon "to mobilise themselves against all attempts to betray the struggle for independence.

When it came to the question of relinquishing studies for country's sake, there was a departure from the erstwhile unanimity of the Conference. There were those who pleaded 'caution" and other halting slogans.

Miss Freny Bhesania and Miss Mehta of the St. Xavier's College made a stirring appeal that University degrees should be sacrificed at the altar of India's freedom.

The result of voting on this resolution would be announced today.

"RED BADGES" PROMINENT AT OPERA HOUSE.

For nearly an hour confusion and disorder reigned supreme at the Royal Opera House on Sunday morning when the Bombay Students' Conference met again to consider the resolutions. Dr. S. K. Vaidya presided.

Over two thousand students representing every college in Bombay packed the theatre and intense enthusiasm marked the earlier proceedings of the Conference.

Lady students who were present in large numbers took a prominent part in the deliberations, some of them pleading for immediate suspension of studies and complete boycott of Colleges.

Conspicuous in the audience were a few youths wearing red badges with the symbol of hammer and sickle.

The signal for the pandamonium was given when Sjt. V. V. Deshpande, who had a red badge pinned to his coat, came forward to move an amendment to a resolution.

The Chairman allowed Mr. Deshpande to speak but ruled him out of order.

WHAT ABOUT WORKERS.

Mr. Deshpande said that the boycott of British cloth would not bring them Independence. By independence he meant greater opportunities to the workers and peasants. Boycott of foreign cloth would swell the dividends of capitalists but would not help the workers. (Loud shouts of hear! hear!) What they really wanted was .....

The Chairman, here interrupted the speaker and ruled him out of order.

The ruling was greeted by the "Red Badge" group with shouts of "You are a bourgeoisie and capitalist."

No sooner were these remarks addressed to the Chairman, than the whole house shouted shame to the group and demanded that the speaker should be put out of the theatre.

Mr. Deshpande descended from the platform and joined his comrades in the passage leading to platform and for several minutes the "Red Badge" group and the entire audience exchanged "Shame, shame."

CONFUSION REIGNS.

In the din of confusion and babble some students were heard to remark that all the "Red Badgers" must leave the theatre, but the latter insisted on remaining and even pushed forward towards the platform.

Whistles were blown, volunteers rushed in the passage, and for several minutes a regular pendemonium ensued. Some of the students were pushing the Red badgers out, while a few of the latter were attempting to advance towards the platform.

All appeals made from the platform to allow the Red Badgers to remain in the theatre fell on deaf ears.

Eventually some volunteers succeeded in bringing about partial calm, but by this time some Red Badgers had already left the theatre.

Mr. Deshpande was marched by some volunteers to the platform while a student was pointing out an accusing finger at him shouting "Take it from me, he is not a student."

CONGRESS VERSUS SOCIALISM.

The Chairman explained the reason that led him to rule Mr. Deshpande out of order. He had accepted the Presidentship of the Conference on the definite understanding that their platform would be the Congress Platform and none other. He imposed this condition because he wanted to guide the students on right lines. Therefore he declined to allow any speaker to make it a Socialistic platform. His ruling might be wrong but he was determined that so long as he was in the chair, the ruling must be respected. If however, the students wished so he would vacate the chair. (Shouts of No, No.) He recognised the right of some people to break the meeting but without using violence he would do his best to stop them breaking it.

Mr. Deshpande was here seen to rise and make some remarks.

Chairman: Sit down I say, I won't allow you to speak.

Some members of the audience again demanded that Mr. Deshpande should be put out and cried "shame" at him.

CHAIRMAN'S IDEA OF SOCIALISM!

The Chairman said that the main reason why he did not want references to Communistic ideals was that it was repeatedly being said that Indians and especially students received inspiration from Moscow. This he wanted to refute. The Congress stood for non-violence and the students were for Congress creed. Under no circumstances would he allow the platform to be turned into a "murderous, violent, socialistic" platform.

Here Mr. Deshpande again interrupted and a number of people rushed towards him.

The first resolution before the Conference was moved by Mr. Desai which ran: "This Conference congratulates those martyrs of the Satyagraha movement who were the victims of the inhuman repressive measures adopted by the Government."

The resolution being seconded by Sjt. Vin was adopted 'nem con'.

Sjt. Madanlal moved the second resolution declaring that the immediate objective of the Indian nation is complete national independence. He said that the rising youth of the country did not want to go back on the decision of the Lahore Congress. "Do you want anything short of complete independence?" he asked.

"No", shouted the whole audience.

Sjt. Chandravadan Desai said

Satyagrahis Given Blows Instead Of Warrants

A TIRUPATI INCIDENT

TIRUPATI, June 27.

Messrs. Akroor Anatachariar, Vithal Srinivasa Rao and Adinarayanan, Satyagrahis from Udayavanam, Madras, arrived here on Wednesday. In the evening they held a public meeting in the premises of the local Reading Room. Mr. Srinivasa Rao began to address the audience a Head Constable served him with a notice under Section 144. Mr. Srinivasa Rao demanded a translation of the order or to let him know the gist of the order in Tamil. While this conversation was going on the Deputy Superintendent of Police, who was playing tennis in the same compound, ordered the Head Constable to arrest Mr. Srinivasa Rao.

BLOWS INSTEAD OF WARRANT.

When Mr. Srinivasa Rao demanded the warrant to be shown to him the Head Constable gave him two blows and took him to the Police Station. On their way, they were met by Sub-Magistrate and Circle Inspector. Mr. Srinivasa Rao put this case before them, whereupon the Sub-Magistrate asked the Circle Inspector to translate the notice into Tamil. Mr. Srinivasa Rao then accepted the notice and then was released.

When Mr. Srinivasa Rao again began to address the gathering the Inspector of Police served an order under Section 144 on him.

MEETING DISPERSED BY FORCE.

Mr. Rajagopalachari then stood up to address the meeting, but the Inspector of Police with a posse of constables dispersed the meeting by force.

Mr. Srinivasa Rao was re-arrested in the night and kept in the lock-up till next morning. He was taken to Panapakam and produced before the Sub-Divisional Magistrate of Chadragiri, who sentenced him to undergo six months' rigorous imprisonment as a C Class prisoner. The accused refused to take part in the proceedings. He received the sentence smilingly. He was taken to Vellore Jail by the noon train.—Free Press.

Dnaktoo Kanoo, a Maratha volunteer who was severely injured by the Police charge at the Esplanade maidan on the memorable Saturday morning, is lying in a precarious condition at the Congress Hospital.

He was struck by a police and fell down on his face. Immediately he was struck with a pointed lathi. Since then he had been bleeding profusely, but was better a few days ago. He started bleeding again.

MORE THAN DOZEN VOLUNTEERS OFFER THEIR BLOOD.

On Sunday evening his condition was so serious that he had to be kept on oxygen. The doctors found that the only way of saving him was to inject human blood. On hearing this, about a dozen volunteers and others, including a lady, offered themselves to have their blood drawn out for the patient.

The surgeons chose Messrs. J. K. Barucha, Chimanlal Gandhi and Jivaji Kaparkar, amongst the volunteers took out blood from their bodies and injected it into the patient's body. The operation was performed by Dr. Bhajekar, F. R. C. S.

Among those who visited the Congress Hospital on Sunday were Sir Manubhai Mehta, the Dewan of Bikaner, Sir Lalubhai Samaltas and Mr. F. J. Ginwala, Solicitor.

Bar Association Enquires Into Allegation.

BEZWADA, June 28.

The Bezwada Bar Association has appointed a committee to enquire into the allegations made by a vakil against a Policeman that the latter took away the Khadder cloth which the former was wearing, leaving him naked in the street.

In a statement to the Bar Association the vakil stated he went to Tiruvur to argue a case. While he was standing in front of a hotel dressed in Khaddar, a Policeman came to him and asked him why he was dressed in Khadi. The vakil replied that he always wore Khaddar and even when he appeared in courts he wore Khaddar. Immediately the constable using foul language removed his dhoti leaving him naked. The constable, it is alleged, also threatened to shoe the vakil. But the vakil who had no clothes on ran into the hotel and provided himself with a towel. As he had no dhoti he also applied for adjournment of the case, to appear for which he had gone to Tiruvur.

On receipts of this statement the members of the Bar Association waited in deputation on the District Magistrate, who promised to enquire into the matter and also added that the authorities had never issued instructions for such doings.—Free Press.

WHEN DOCTORS DIFFER.

Mr. Ghate's Application To Magistrate.

Mr. S. V. Ghate who was asked by the Chief Presidency Magistrate to go to the Police Surgeon to obtain a medical certificate in regard to his state of health was examined by Dr. W. Nunan, Police Surgeon, and certified to be in a fit state to go to Meerut to take his trial in the Meerut "Conspiracy" case. Mr. Ghate presented Dr. Nunan's certificate in the Court and told the Chief Presidency Magistrate that his medical adviser, Dr. Gilder was of contrary opinion and he was prepared to produce a certificate to that effect from Dr. Gilder. The Chief Presidency Magistrate told Mr. Ghate to produce the certificate of Dr. Gilder and informed him that he would send both the certificates to the Sessions Judge, Meerut, and he would have to go to Meerut if he is required there.

MEERUT ACCUSED.

Appeal For Funds.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The Meerut accused have once more to draw the attention of their friends and sympathisers to the needs of their defence. In the present situation of the country it is natural that the needs of the Meerut Defence should occupy little public attention. The case has been going on for over a year and the accused have been in jail over fifteen months. With the help of friends and organisations here and abroad some modest arrangements of defence could be made till now. But the case threatens to prolong for several months more yet. Most of those who were working for the accused till now are either actively engaged in the present fight or are inside the jails. Whatever resources were available are now almost exhausted. Therefore, all those who are sympathetic with the Meerut accused are required to push up collections. Since the imprisonment of many of the very active members of the Defence Committees the accused have been managing and administering defence fund and other matters through a committee of their own. The arrangements are to hold Defence funds in a bank in the name of the Meerut Conspiracy Case Defence fund to be administered by two persons elected at a meeting of the accused. Therefore, all are requested to send their collections in pursuance of the above, arrangements to Messrs. D. R. Thengdi and Kedar Nath Saigal C|o the Superintendent District Jail Meerut U. P.—Yours etc.

Bombay.

Dear Sir,

My attention has been drawn to the statement made about the Chanda Ramji Hindu Girls' High School in yesterday's issue of the "Bombay Congress Bulletin." I beg to assure you that the statement is entirely unfounded and that neither the governing body nor the staff have ever contemplated or contemplate in future discouraging the use of Swadeshi or Khadi Cloth in school either by the staff or the students. No lady teacher has been warned by the Lady Superintendent or any other person in the school "not to wear Khadi sarees while attending school." I hope you will in fairness give the above a wide publicity in your issue as otherwise the best interests of the school are likely to suffer in the estimation of the public.

Yours faithfully,

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE

MONDAY, JUNE 30, 1930.

THE INDIAN POSITION

—:o:—

We heartily congratulate the Hon. Raja Nawab Ali Khan, a prominent Taluqdar of Oudh, a member of the Council of State and a member of the Central Simon Committee, on the honest and courageous statement that he has made to the Press on the Simon Report. "The recommendations of the Commission", he says, "have left me sadly disappointed and disillusioned and I feel I owe it to my countrymen to express publicly my regret for having co-operated with the Commission." No condemnation of the Simon Report would be more eloquent, nor could anything point more unmistakably to the fact that the Report is dead so far as Indians are concerned. The unanimity of Indian opinion has had a chastening effect even on British opinion. For, it is clear from the comments of important British weeklies, that the frenzied enthusiasm for the Simon Report as indulged in by the dailies has now come down to apologetic protestations that it is at least quite good in parts. They, therefore, invite India to consider what improvements can be effected in it.

It is from this point of view that they look at the significance of the Round Table Conference. At the Conference, according to the "New Statesman", "the Report will indeed be treated with all the respect it deserves, but will not be put on the table as our last word on India." The "Spectator" suggests that Indian representatives will be invited at the Conference to "improve the scheme" and make the fundamental reality of the Report "still more real." While the "Week-end Review" is definitely of the opinion that the Report is bound to form the basis of discussion at the Conference" and "must necessarily take the centre of the stage." The "Nation" is less enamoured of it, or rather it realises the intensity of Indian feeling against the Report more. But all seem to regard the Conference as intended primarily to salve the Simon wreck. This is broadly the position which both the British and the Indian Governments will very likely take.

But this is emphatically not the Indian position. India shall not be a party to the resurrection of a report that has pleased nobody and has disillusioned even those who stood by the Simon Commission until the actual publication of the recommendations. For instance, the "Muslim Outlook" of Lahore has now begun to doubt the value of the policy of co-operation and wonders whether it would not be advisable to boycott the Round Table Conference. It is clear that, in the words of the Maharaja of Mahmudabad, "if these recommendations were to form the basis of discussion at the Round Table Conference, no Indian of any position or stake would dream of attending the Conference." And as the Maharaja further says, "a clear and definite announcement regarding the Round Table Conference and the Simon Report is urgently called for." Government are busy arranging a Secretariat staff for the Round Table Conference and appointing Mr. Haig—of all persons—as their representative. They would do well to respond to public opinion and save the Round Table Conference from the fate of the Simon Commission by accepting the terms as given by Mahatma Gandhi and Pundit Motilal Nehru. Unless this is done, the Round Table Conference will go the way of the Simon Commission and will further intensify the national struggle, with results which ought, by now, to be evident to those who had fondly hoped that the "insurgence of national aspirations" could be stemmed by Ordinances. Writing on the Simon Report the "Nation" regrets that "the offer comes too late to be readily acceptable." This should serve as a warning to Government and to those who like the Liberals and Neo-Liberals are toying with the idea of attending the Round Table Conference without the fulfilment of conditions postulated on behalf of the Congress, that is to say, on behalf of India. No self-respecting Indian can attend the Conference on a vague assurance such as might be acceptable to the Liberals or on the still more vague understanding such as Mr. Jinnah wants that both parties will meet at the Round Table Conference with an open mind.

THE BOYCOTT WEEK.

—:o:—

We welcome the decision of the Boycott Propaganda Committee of the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee to institute a Boycott Week from June 30 to July 2. An intense and house-to-house propaganda will stimulate the interest of the citizens of Bombay in the promotion and support of Swadeshi industry and the visit of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and Pundit Madan Mohan Malaviya to the city will give greater encouragement to the Congress volunteers, the Desha Sevikas and the tender but enthusiastic recruits in the army of Swaraj, the 'Wanar Sena' to bring home to every person the urgency of discarding foreign cloth and resisting the temptation of buying British goods, on the pretext that they cannot be replaced by similar articles from elsewhere immediately. The Boycott Committee has organised an extensive programme. Let every citizen of Bombay help it to carry it through and Bombay's splendid endeavour will encourage other parts of India to take up the movement for boycott and Swadeshi in even greater earnest than they have hitherto done.

It is gratifying to notice that the boycott movement is now making an irresistible appeal to every class and community in India. The women, in particular, have come forward nobly to preach and practise the gospel of Swadeshi. Such practical efforts, with their happy promise of making the Swadeshi movement progress steadily and rapidly, deserve every encouragement from the public. The importance of women as the chief buyers of household goods was emphasized by a speaker at the Empire Press Conference in London when he advocated special advertising propaganda in India to attract the attention of Indian women to British goods. Such appeals to them will now prove, we hope, useless. India's daughters to-day have become keen on Swadeshi and we can be sure that the coming generation will find economic freedom assured to it. But we want that freedom now. We must always bear in mind that through this economic freedom we can obtain real political freedom. India, of all the countries of the world, is in the happy position of being able to provide sufficiently for her clothing needs and her food, if only her people are determined to stand by the gospel of Swadeshi. The wealth that they will retain in their own hands through the boycott of British goods will enable them to establish indigenous industrial concerns and let it be remembered that no amount of Ordinances can deter a people, if only they have the will and the courage, from refusing to patronise goods they do not want.

DULEEPSINJHI'S TEST RECORD.

One of the notable features of the Second Test Match now in progress at Lords has been the brilliant display of Duleepsinjhi. The Indian Prince knocked up 173 runs against the redoubtable Australian attack, incidentally the highest score against the visitors so far this season. His remarkable success against the Australians, needless to say, has given great satisfaction to followers of cricket in this country. "Duleep" was not included in the First Test. It will be recalled that he only figured once in an all-England side against the South Africans last year. He was dropped in the succeeding Test due, it is said, to the objection of the Dominion players, promoted by racial prejudice! The ways of selection committees are strange and in the disturbing atmosphere of Test cricket it is quite possible to make mistakes. But the dropping of the Indian cricketer from the First Test at Trent Bridge was a blunder, though fortunately England emerged victorious. Duleepsinji has been qualified by residence to play for England and if his uncle, the illustrious Ranji, was considered good enough to play against Australia and a precedent established by his inclusion there was no earthly reason why his nephew should not have been included. However, the enforced absence of Larwood and Sutcliffe left the selectors with no other alternative than to choose the brilliant Indian. How he justified his inclusion is now past history.

"Duleep" had his early cricketing education under the tuition of his famous uncle, and Frank Tarrant, the Middlesex and Australian cricketer at Nawanagar. Later at Cheltenham and Cambridge under expert coaching he added those touches to his game which have made him one of the finest stroke players in cricket. Duleep is not blessed with a robust constitution but he has wrists of steel and hits with power and precision.

Critics and players who themselves dominated the cricketing stage in their day are or opinion that after Duleep's series of successes in New Zealand last winter and his several big innings for Sussex he has walked his way into any Test Team. He has inherited the genius of his famous uncle and as a slip fielder he has no equal. His claim to a place in future Test Teams is undisputed. Gifted with youth and abundant confidence there is no reason why Duleepsinjhi should not even surpass the record of the celebrated Jam Saheb who has earned a big niche in cricketing annals.

PUNCTUATIONS.

(By ?.)

From Simla: "A Donkey in foreign clothes and wearing an English hat, carried a copy of the Simon Report which at the conclusion of the procession was burnt."

* * * * *

This is heaping insult upon insult—on a dumb animal.

* * * * *

Sir John Simon says "a constitution is a work of architecture like a great cathedral. It must contain lofty aspirations, but it must stand upon the earth".

* * * * *

Quite true. And no constitution answers to these qualifications in a higher degree than the one just devised by Sir John.

* * * * *

Take the "lofty aspirations". The aspirations contained in his cathedral—I mean constitution,—are really so lofty that you can only detect their pinnacle by means of a telescope and at considerable inconvenience to your neck.

* * * * *

Says the "Muslman": "Lathi charge by the police on Congress volunteers and other civil resisters has become the order of the day almost all over the country."

Because it is the law of the land.

* * * * *

"The breadth and cogency of these recommendations must throw the confused cry of immediate Dominion Status into the back-ground."—Mr. B. C. Pal. I always thought his ear-sight was marvellous.

* * * * *

There is a compensation for every misfortunate, a balm for every ache or pain, and a healing touch for every wound. This is amply proved by the present political situation.

* * * * *

But I would rather illustrate it from the case of the Mussalmans. We have all heard that the Mussalmans were betrayed by Sir John Simon—personally I regard it as a libel on Sir John. But everybody says so. Right.

* * * * *

So let us suppose that they lost mundane benefits by co-operation with Sir John. Now a Maulana has issued a 'fatwa' through the Collectorate of Etawah (U. P.) virtually promising heavenly salvation to Mussalmans if they non-co-operated with "Gandhi".

* * * * *

The Maulana ordains—and I have no reason to doubt that the other divine, the Maulana Collector Sahib, endorses the view—"There is no such thing in Islam as 'Republican Government'. Islam teaches only about 'autocratic Government'. I have no intention to put on Khaddar because now it has become an emblem of the party which worships Gandhi."

* * * * *

A confrere thereupon asks: "Has Islam anything to say about freedom and foreign Government?" Perhaps Shamsul-Ulema Maulana Malcolm Hailey will give an answer to this unbeliever.

* * * * *

I should have myself tried to put my confrere's conscience at ease, but I have suddenly remembered the recent fatwa issued from Simla by the Mahomedan

OLLA PODRIDA.

POLITICS & SPORTS.

(BY NOVALIS)

What has been achieved by the Press Ordinance? What was the object of issuing it? No Local Government has waited to explain why security was demanded from so many papers.

The result has been the suppression of many newspapers. The demand for securities has never been supported by any extracts from the newspapers sought to be penalised. It cannot be alleged for a moment that the ordinary law has failed. No newspaper charged with sedition has ever been acquitted. It is true that the Government was alarmed; there was every justification for it. But for the cause it looked in every direction except the right one—itself.

The newspapers that have ceased to appear or the few that are left were not inciting the people to disaffection. The feelings of the people were far ahead of the most outspoken newspapers, which merely faintly echoed the views of the people. Not a single paper, however violent, ever published the kind of language that is to be heard everywhere all over the country, in cities and villages, at the countryside and the market-place, at small gatherings where men and women congregate, at large meetings attended by thousands of enthusiasts.

No newspaper could even report the language used at such places by men and women. No one now looks for a lead anywhere, every one knows what has to be done. The newspapers that have disappeared and those that are still trying to do their duty were marking merely the low water level of the tide that is sweeping over the country. The high water mark has not yet been recorded in writing anywhere.

Deliberately the Government have put out of their reach the means of gauging partially the minds of the people, they have blown out the lights that helped in showing the byways of popular thought, they have choked off the supply of news and allowed rumour to overrun the whole country. It is true that many things that are being done will not bear the light, but nothing will keep them from the knowledge of the world.

Of course it is no concern of the Government as to what will become of the hundreds of men that have been suddenly thrown out of employment. Why not issue some leaflets persuading them to join the minorities that support the Government and disapprove of the civil disobedience movement—on paper?

There was one Simon, called Peter, who denied his Master three times before the cock crowed. There is another Simon who has denied that India has the inalienable right that belongs to all nations. And the two Simons belong to the same race.

The Hindus having withdrawn from the Quadrangular Cricket Tournament that annual fixture was practically knocked on the head. The Hindus have now been followed by the Mussalmans and the Parsis. There is no likelihood now of the M. C. C. team coming out to India. In Calcutta the Indian teams have had to withdraw from the Football League on account of the intercession of the lady picketers and it is highly improbable that they will participate in the shield tournament. It has been complained that political feeling should not be imported into sports. Neither should unsportsmanlike methods be introduced in the political field. England has not played the game in Indian politics and India has refused to be a party to other games.

Where is Catherine Mayo; the traducer of Indian womanhood and the calumniator of the manhood of India? Besides the foul book she wrote she concocted some stories full of malice against the men and women of India. The reply to her aspersions has come in deeds that will be recorded in history. Indian women have torn the veil of the purdah and placed themselves in the forefront of the heroic struggle going on in India for the freedom of the race. Hindu, Mussalman, Parsi, women of every creed have rushed into the fray unbidden, and are facing the lathi and the prison undismayed.

Michael of Martial Law fame and a Maharaja of no fame except that he was on the Bengal Executive Council have been singing a duet, Sir Michael O'Dwyer, whose name rhymes with Dyer; and the Maharaja of Burdwan, whose name rhymes with a very bad word, are alarmed at the suggestion, made in the Simon Report, of law and order being placed under Ministers. It means nothing, of course, for we know perfectly well the stuff of which Ministers are made and we have heard of the powers given to Governors in the Simonian Report. The colossal effrontery of Sir Michael will surprise no one while the colossal figure of the Maharaja has become fairly familiar in England. He is an absentee Indian landowner supposed to be nursing an unknown constituency in England.

The leaflet "Boycott of British Goods" published by the Bombay Government Press and broadcast by the Bombay Government has been forfeited to the Bombay Government and a bonfire made of all the remaining copies. Philip drunk has successfully appealed to Philip sober, but the mischief already done is beyond redemption and British business in Bombay has suffered seriously. Are the Bombay Government aware that most official communications are of the leaflet brand and always do more harm than good?

MUSLIMS ! AWAKE !

—:o:—

Is Not Faith In Britain Shattered Yet ?

LAHORE, June 27.

Chowdhry Afzul Huuq, M. L. C., in a statement, says:—

Those Muslims who had pinned their faith to the Simon Commission have been disillusioned, and I hope they will in future ponder a good deal before they take up anti-nationalist attitude in all national questions. It is for all of us to realise that idle reliance upon other people's friendship and favours can be of no avail. Unless the Muslims stand up to fight for national emancipation, they cannot earn the respect of Government or of sister communities. It is only active and solid work that can win anything. Making preparations for the Round Table Conference can be of no avail.—Free Press.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

Top-Dogs.

Somebody has been telling Parliament that all the trouble in India is, in effect, due to the fact that "the British troops are not allowed to use their weapons in order to show that we are top-dogs". For, he insisted, "we are top-dogs and we mean to remain so, come what may". While the sentiment does full justice to the canine mind it scarcely fits in with the theory that beings in the final stages of biological evolution become endowed with qualities at variance with the "dogly" impulse first to grab and then to defend with all the might of its teeth. It also betrays a sad ignorance of history on the part of this 'Top-dog' theorist, specially of the lamentable history of efforts to become or remain "top-dogs". As to his innocence of the principles of moral and political justice we need hardly say anything.

Doctor Khan On Muslim Demands.

In the June number of "Indian Affairs"—edited in London by Sir Albion Banerji—Dr. Shafaat Ahmad Khan of Allahabad has written an article on the "Hindu Muslim Problem" or rather a defence of the demands as put forward by the so-called All-Muslim Conference. We are not here concerned with Dr. Khan's claim that it was he who originally conceived and later gave to the world, through his memorandum to the Simon Commission, the Muslim demands finally formulated at Delhi under the Presidentship of the Aga Khan. We are prepared to concede him that honour. At least the 14 points do eminently deserve the parentage claimed for them. But what is really interesting is his solemn and laborious effort to justify some of them. One can appreciate his plea for safeguarding the language, culture and religion of the Mussalmans. One must also support his plea for supporting Muslim education. These can be provided for, as he himself suggests, in the Constitution. Where then is the need for communal electorates? Yet, in fact, the emphasis laid on them is so great that cultural, religious and linguistic rights become a very minor question. Their necessity, specially in Bengal and the Punjab, is sought to be proved by the fact of Muslim poverty and of Hindus possessing a very strong voting power.

End And Means.

Perhaps Dr. Khan forgets the unimportant fact that poverty is more an economic than a communal question and that, therefore, its solution also should be sought in economics. But, perhaps, he would rule the idea out, as dangerous in its possible reactions, since Dr. Khan is as much a champion of vested interests and zemindars as of the poor Mussalmans. What is very curious is that Dr. Khan should not have been able to think of saving the Mussalmans from poverty and the strong voting power of the Hindus except by means of separate electorates. It did not occur to him, for instance, that adult franchise—or failing it, some other scheme of franchise that would reflect the proportion of population—might well solve the difficulty, and at the same time not keep the two communities in water-tight compartments. It did not occur to him; for with him separate electorates are an obsession even to the neglect of the real requirements of Mussalmans. He shouts for the former and whispers about the latter. There are vested interests in Muslim politics also, and to them separate electorates, with or without majority, with or without the enfranchisement of the mass of the community, are the end, Mussalmans being the means. Incidentally it is significant that Dr. Khan has suddenly lost his thunder and is silent about the Simon recommendations.

In A Tight Corner.

Chancellor Bruening, the head of the German Coalition Cabinet, is in a tight corner. The new Finance Minister of the Reich, Dr. Hopkar, agreed to take up the arduous task of meeting the financial deficit, only on the assurance that he would receive the unstinted support of all political parties. Dr. Bruening has taken up the unpleasant work of mobilising public opinion in favour of the new financial proposals and he explained them to the Reichsrat on Saturday. The Reichsrat is a body whose acceptance of the proposals will go a long way in mitigating the hostility to the increase in financial burdens the German people will have to bear. The non-recurrent emergency tax on the salaries of public servants will evoke no opposition and the saving in the estimates of various ministries which is expected to amount to a million marks will be warmly welcomed but bitter opposition will greet the proposal to levy a tax on bachelors and spinsters.

It has been found that dingy teeth come from a film that clings to the teeth. A stubborn film that old dentifrices do not successfully remove. That's why brushing is futile.

Run your tongue across your teeth and you can feel this film now — a sort of slippery coating.

It absorbs discolorations from food, smoking etc. It invites acid decay and troubles and is the chief cause of pyorrhea because it breeds bacteria and is the basis of tartar.

Now in a new-type dentifrice called Pepsodent scientific combatants are found. Leading dentists widely urge its

STOCKS AND SHARES.

RATHER QUIET IRREGULAR SESSION.

Scattered Business.

Bombay, June 28.

The Bombay Stock Exchange opened somewhat quiet for mill shares and there was some liquidation which resulted in a further decline. However, at the decline there was some covering and with scattered business prices closed somewhat under previous closing. There was some buying business but premiums were narrow. Hydros closed rather steady after sharp decline recently. There was no enquiry for Burmah Shares. Tata Steel Shares were easy as there was practically no sales of any importance in Cement Shares.

Bombay Dyeing opened at 1[illegible] 735, and after declining to 7[illegible] improved to Rs. 7[illegible] Shipping Illustrated Reports and Rs. 4[illegible]

PLEDGED TO WEAR KHADDAR

Sevadal Secretary's Fate in Jail

The Publicity Officer of the U. P. Congress Committee writes:—

"Shri Nand Kumar Deo Vashishtha, the Secretary of the United Provinces Hindustani Seva Dal, was arrested at Rai Bareilli under the Salt Act and sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment. He was placed in C class. For many years he is under a sacred vow not to wear any other dress except Khaddar, but in the jail he is being forced to wear non-Khaddar dress which he has refused. He was transferred from Rai Bareilli to Lucknow jail and there he is being kept in solitary confinement and has lost about twelve pounds in weight. For two months he has been without any clothes and is in a stark naked condition. His condition is very critical and the authorities are still obstinate and callous in their treatment."

"Withdraw Anti-Picketing Ordinance"

'APPLICATION TO BOMBAY, UNQUALIFIED BLUNDER

MARWADI CHAMBER REMINDS VICEROY OF HIS OWN WORDS.

The President of the Marwadi Chamber of Commerce has addressed a letter protesting against the promulgation of the anti-picketing ordinance to the Viceroy. The following are extracts from the letter.

AN ENCROACHMENT.

The Board of Directors of this Chamber are definitely opposed to the promulgation and application of the Ordinance to Bombay. Their opposition is based on principles as well as on practical grounds. My Board feel that this Ordinance is a direct encroachment upon one of the most essential and elementary rights of citizenship. There cannot be any conceivable reason why any individual should not have the right to approach his brother citizen and use his powers of persuasion to convert the latter to his view. My Board are not aware of any reports, private or public, of any resort to intimidation by picketers in general. Besides, the language of the Ordinance makes it clear that it is aimed against picketing of any kind and is not intended merely to stop intimidation or violence. Section 3 of the Ordinance makes a person who merely stands near a house or shop without doing anything else, an offender of law. The right of peaceful picketing has been recognised in all civilised countries. The deprivation of that right is a matter which no self-respecting body or individual will endorse or accept.

REMINDED OF HIS OWN WORDS.

The Board of Directors of this Chamber therefore strongly protest against the promulgation and enforcement of the Ordinance in question. My Board feel that they shall be failing in their duty if they did not invite the attention of His Excellency to paragraph 2 of the statement justifying the Ordinance:—It reads "..... it is no part of the duty of my Government and certainly it is not their desire to take steps against any legitimate movements directed to these ends. They are anxious to see the promotion of indigenous Indian industries and it is perfectly legitimate for any person, in advocacy of this object, to urge the use of Indian goods to the utmost extent of which Indian industry is capable. Nor have I anything but respect for those who preach the cause of temperance". In this connection I feel bound to state that inspite of the good intentions of His Excellency, the effect of this Ordinance cannot but harm the movement of Swadeshi and temperance. At the present time there is a deeper and more widespread spirit of Swadeshi prevalent in the country than ever before and suppression of picketing by law will adversely affect both Swadeshi and temperence.

UNQUALIFIED BLUNDER.

It is the considered opinion of my Board that apart from the question of principle the enforcement of the Ordinance in Bombay was entirely unnecessary and uncalled for and the experience of its working during the last few days confirms the view that the application of Ordinance to Bombay was an unqualified blunder from every point of view. Picketing had been carried on by a large number of lady volunteers who acted in a very peaceful and dignified manner. There was no public complaint against the behaviour of these lady volunteers.

Under these circumstances it passes comprehension why the Ordinance was enforced in Bombay, what emergency it was intended to meet and what good it has achieved. Male volunteers had begun to picket foreign cloth shops in the Fort area. In the first place picketing was extended to the fort area, only after and as a direct result of the promulgation of the Ordinance. Besides, even though these volunteers picketed 12 shops in the fort area their behaviour was peaceful and above reproach.

In conclusion my Board venture to urge upon His Excellency the Viceroy the imperative necessity of his reconsidering the whole position and withdrawing this Ordinance at an early date and thus pave the way for an atmosphere of better understanding between the Government and the public.

EMPHATIC PROTEST AGAINST REPRESSION.

Mr. Kajiji's Scathing Indictment.

BOMBAY SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Mr. A. M. Kajiji at the quarterly meeting of the Bombay Shareholders' Association held yesterday said in the course of his presidential address:—

As a result of the Civil Disobedience movement Mahatma Gandhi the great apostle of peace is in prison. Leaders after leader of whom any country would be proud have also been put into jail. Unjustifiable and somewhat brutal assaults on volunteers and indiscriminate beating of the public which result in much suffering and loss of life and which do little credit to the administration have become the order of the day. Martial law has been proclaimed in different parts of the country. Ordinances have been issued curtailing the freedom of the press and prohibiting picketing and social boycott. A crisis has overtaken the Indian cotton trade. Silver has slumped heavily. The jute trade shows signs of weakness. Stock exchanges are disorganised. Commodity prices have gone down. Trade and commerce have been paralysed everywhere and there is a sense of insecurity in the country. Although the interests of shareholders are inextricably bound with those of trade and commerce although the progress of trade depends upon stable conditions and although we shareholders cannot look upon the present conditions except with grave concern yet, I must warn the Government that repression is no remedy for national discontent. If they want normal conditions to be restored it behoves them to look at the root cause of the unrest and treat it in a statesmanlike manner. In my opinion this unrest is nothing but a manifestation of the prolonged economic domination and general improvershment of the Indian people. If all those who disobey law were locked up, yet so long as the economic conditions remain as they are, the unrest will not be allayed. "The surest way to prevent seditions" wrote Bacon "was to take the matter of them. For if there is fuel prepared. It is hard to tell whence the sparb shall come that shall set it on fire.", and he added "The rebellions of the belly are the worst." In all civilized countries it is the primary duty of the administration to devote all attention to increasing the national income of the people. Continuous action in this direction is one of the essential functions of the executive. I wish I could say that the Government of India does this. The facts however tell a different tale. The fixation of the exchange ratio at 1s. 6d., the continued contractions of currency, the hostility to the Coastal Reservation Bill and the introduction of a policy of preference to British goods are some of the many instances which have instilled in the minds of the Indian people a grave suspicion regarding the economic policy of the Government of India.

Mr. Kajiji referring to the recent leaflet issued from the Government Central Press said that it containing unwarranted and gratuitous aspersions upon Indian industries was distributed broad-cast some days ago in the streets. The very fact that publication of the said leaflet in the Government Central Press has not been denied is enough to show that it was printed at the instance of the Government and distributed also at their instance. I have already stated that the present unrest is nothing but a manifestation of the prolonged economic domination of the Indian people by those who govern them. The leaflet in question completely supports my statement. It is unfortunate that professions about solicitude towards Indian industries so recently made in high quarters should be observed more in their breach than in their observance. I am glad to find from newspaper reports that this obnoxious leaflet has been called off. I hope the reports are true. It is however the duty of the Local Government to explain their action as the mischief has already been done. I do not think, gentlemen, it is necessary for me to deal with the recommendations of the Simon Commission. The views expressed by people of different shades of opinion against the reactionary character of these recommendations are in themselves enough to condemn the Report. I would only hope that the British Government will now deem its duty to make an unequivocal declaration that the purpose of the Round Table Conference will be to evolve a scheme for the Dominion form of Government in India with such safeguards as may be necessary in the initial period. This and this alone will ease the present situation.

HARMFUL TO MUSLIM INTERESTS.

Lucknow Condemns Simon Report.

LUCKNOW, June 28.

A Conference of Muslim leaders convened by Raja of Salempore met to-day at the Raja's residence in Kaiser Bagh. It was attended by several Muslim members of the U. P. Council. Although no formal resolution has yet been passed, several members expressed strong disappoval of Simon Commissions Report. The Conference continues to-morrow.

This afternoon a largely attended meeting of Muslim citizens of Lucknow was held at Gangaprasad Varma Memorial Hall under the presidentship of Sheik Mushir Hussain Kidwai. The gathering which was a representative one, passed two resolutions unanimously. The first resolution strongly condemned the Simon Commission's Recommendations, describing them as harmful to the interests of the country and the Muhammadan community.

MUSLIMS NON-CO-OPERATE.

The meeting urged on Muslim leaders not to take any part in the Round Table Conference until the Viceroy and the Secretary of State had given a definite assurance that the Round Table Conference would take no notice of the Simon Commission's Report and that the granting of immediate Dominion Status with "necessary safeguards" should form the basis of discussion at the Conference.

The meeting further recommended to Muslim leaders to begin immediate negotiations with leading Hindus and settle communal differences by mutual co-operation.

The other resolution condemned "Repressive policy of Government towards Congress Volunteers and the general public of Lucknow, and expressed its sympathy with the dead and the injured.—A. P.
